

Fire Marshals of Colorado (FMAC) Professional Development Scholarship Program Information and Application

AWARDS

The FMAC Scholarship Program Committee will award up to three professional development scholarship award packages each calendar year. The recipients will each receive up to one full week of training at the Colorado Chapter ICC Educational Institute, or the Colorado State Fire Chief's Fire Leadership Challenge, or other FMAC-approved training program. The award package will include up to five nights lodging (reserved by FMAC), meals and other necessary expenses not included in the registration, and an allowance of $120 will be available for use at the ICC bookstore. Also, if not a current member of FMAC, a one-year Class B membership will be included in the award. The total value of the award package shall not exceed $2000.

ELIGIBILITY

Any State of Colorado resident may apply for the scholarship award. FMAC members and non-members are eligible. The following evaluation criteria shall be taken into consideration by the FMAC Scholarship Program Committee during the evaluation process for each applicant:

- The candidate's accomplishments, awards, or recognition that demonstrates leadership abilities and qualities.
- The candidate's submission of one letter of recommendation.
- The candidate's submission of a personal statement elaborating on:
 - His or her personal goals and qualifications as well as the candidate's interest in the mission of FMAC.
 - The candidate's involvement in extracurricular professional and community ventures or affiliations.
 - The candidate's experience and/or relationships with diversity, equity and inclusion.
