

FIRE MARSHAL JOB POSTING

Durango Fire Protection District

Durango Fire Protection District (DFPD) believes that hiring qualified individuals to fill positions contributes to the overall strategic success of DFPD. Each employee, while employed, is hired to make significant contributions to DFPD.

We are currently taking applications for a Fire Marshal for the Prevention and Code Enforcement Division. The position is fulltime, exempt with full benefits.

To be considered for the interview process the following items are due no later than Wednesday, November 1st, 2023, at 1600 MDT.

- Cover letter detailing your abilities and skills pertaining to this job
- Application for Employment – all sections completed
- Resume
- Three (3) professional references

Completed application packets may be returned electronically to megan.kunch@durangofire.org.

The hiring process will consist of one or more interviews. Interviews tentatively scheduled for the week of November 13th, 2023.

Salary range is: $106,259 – $119,952 and is subject to experience. Health, Dental, Vision insurance offered, FPPA or PERA pension, paid vacation & sick time .

Download the job posting, job description and application from our website at durangofire.org. If you have questions or would like further information on the position, contact Human Resources Director Megan Kunch at 970-382-6002.